NGA-004

System name:

NGA Threat Mitigation Records

System location:

Records are maintained at NGA headquarters in Washington, DC metro facilities.

Categories of individuals covered by the system:

Individuals known or appropriately suspected to be or have been engaged in conduct constituting, in preparation for, in aid of, or related to terrorism ("known or suspected terrorists"), individuals who were officially detained during military operations, but not as Enemy Prisoners of War, and who have been identified to pose an actual or possible threat to national security (hereinafter military detainees).

Categories of records in the system:

Identifying information, such as name, date of birth, place of birth, biometrics, photographs, passport and/or drivers' license information, and other available identifying particulars used to compare the identity of an individual being screened with a known or suspected terrorist, including audit records containing this information.

For known or suspected terrorists, in addition to the categories of records listed above, references to and/or information from other government law enforcement and intelligence databases, or other relevant databases that may contain terrorism information.

Authority for maintenance of the system:

5 U.S.C. 301, Departmental Regulations; 10 U.S.C. Chapter 22, The National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency; 50 U.S.C. §402a, Coordination of Counterintelligence Activities; and HSPD-24, Biometrics for Identification and Screening to Enhance National Security.

Purpose(s) :

NGA collects, uses, maintains, and disseminates information to facilitate NGA's counterintelligence activities, including activities related to international counterterrorism. Threat Mitigation data, which includes personally identifiable information (PII), is necessary for NGA to effectively and efficiently conduct its mission by assessing the risk and/or threat to NGA personnel, property, information and facilities posed by persons who have been deemed known or suspected terrorists or have a nexus to criminal activity.

NGA is receiving information relevant for use in authorized screening processes to assist in detecting and mitigating domestic and international threats to the United States (U.S.) and U.S. interests worldwide.

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of uses and the purposes for such uses:

In addition to those disclosures generally permitted under 5 U.S.C. 552a(b) of the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, these records may be specifically disclosed outside of the DoD as a routine use pursuant to 5 U.S.C. a(b)(3) as follows:

The DoD Blanket Routine Uses set forth at the beginning of NGA's compilation of systems of records notices may apply to this system.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage:

Records in this system are stored electronically in secure facilities behind a locked door with strict physical access controls in place. The records are stored on magnetic disc, tape, digital media, and CD-ROM.

Retrievability:

Records may be retrieved by name or other personal identifier listed in the Categories of records section.

Safeguards:

The records are stored on a stand-alone system and are safeguarded in accordance with applicable rules and policies, including all applicable NGA automated systems security and access policies. Strict controls have been imposed to minimize the risk of compromising the information that is being stored. Access to the computer system containing the records in this system is limited to those individuals who have a need to know the information for the performance of their official duties and who have appropriate clearances or permissions. Usage of physical access controls, encryption, monitoring and auditing mechanisms protect the information stored on the system.

Retention and disposal:

Disposition pending (until the National Archives and Records Administration approve the retention and disposition of these records, treat as permanent).

System manager(s) and address:

Security and Installation Counterespionage Division, Cyber Branch (SICCC), National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency (NGA).
